MONTHLY NEWSLETTER

Pro Rugby

Congratulations to Chad Bain who became the first-ever Ontario player to sign with the Toronto Wolfpack professional rugby league team. The Wolfpack will open their inaugural season in Toronto this May. The Bulldogs will be running a bus trip to watch one of the games. Stay tuned for more details.

Bulldogs Cheers

Congratulations to the following past and present Bulldogs on their Athletic Scholarship Awards from Loyalist College: Brooke Babcock, Hunter Clement, Meghan Weinhold, Drake Bartholomew, Devon Fobert, and Brennan Spencer.

Senior Registration

The senior dues will remain at $300 for the 2017 season, however, full-time students who register in full for the men's or women's team before April 15th will receive a $50 rebate. The 2-week visitor registration has increased to $85. The old boys dues have decreased to $200. All men's and women's players who register in full before April 1st will be entered into a draw to win their dues back! Members will be notified when the registration link goes live.

Junior Registration

The junior registration dues will remain at $225. The Belleville Touch Rugby dues have increased to $75 for the 8-week season, while the Trenton Touch Rugby dues will remain at $60 for the 5-week season. Any touch rugby players who go on to play U14 boys or girls will receive a $50 rebate after registration.

Indoor Training

Thanks to all coaches who have volunteered to run the junior indoor sessions at the Loyalist Dome. These sessions are open to all boys and girls from 12-18 years of age. Each session focuses on ball handling, decision-making, and fitness. We hope to get more Bulldogs out to the upcoming sessions to help prepare for the summer season!
